Media Literacy -Pixlr Day 1

1. Experiment with Pixlr #1 – Photo of the Day
   a. Go to maxfield.synthasite.com, click the Media Literacy tab then click on National Geographic's Photo of the Day.
   b. Right click the picture and choose save image as. (2 POINTS)
      i. Save it on your server
   c. Open a new tab with www.pixlr.com
   d. Choose open Pixlr editor.
   e. Choose open image from computer.
      i. Find the image you just saved, click ok.
   f. Experiment with various filter options.
   g. Apply at least 1 filter from the filter gallery. (2 POINTS)
   h. Add a 6 word caption/saying with the text feature. (6 POINTS)
   i. Add your first name, last initial to the picture. (2 POINTS)
   j. Make any other desired changes you would like.
      i. Bonus +1 for adding _____
      ii. Bonus +1 for adding yourself to the picture
   k. Save your new photo as a JPEG on your server. Filename = your last name1. Example: maxfield1.jpeg
   l. Create a presentation in Google drive.
   m. Click insert image.
      i. Choose an image to upload.
      ii. Insert your image.
   n. Rename your untitled presentation.
      i. Lastname Pixlr

2. Experiment with Pixlr #2 - Green Thumb
   a. Use Google image search to find and save several pictures of pieces of fruit and vegetables to use as pieces to construct a face.
   b. You will need a large round or oval shape for the face and then will resize other facial parts as needed (nose, ears, mouth, eyes, hair, etc.) (10 POINTS, 2 POINTS EACH FEATURE)
   c. Use the lasso, pointer, cut, paste features on pixlr to create a face.
   d. Name your Fruit Face.
   e. Resize the image to 920 pixels wide, 760 pixels wide. (4 POINTS)
   f. Save your new photo as a JPEG. Filename = your last name2. Example: maxfield2.jpeg (4 POINTS)
   g. Insert into same Google presentation as first image
   h. Share your presentation with me. (4 POINTS)

   Homework: Bring a digital copy of a photograph you have taken or a photograph you are in. Photos taken in landscape mode work best.