Prediction Guide: Chapter 22, To Kill a Mockingbird

Instructions: Before reading chapter 22, place a check mark (✓) in the space to the left of each of the statements with which you agree. Then, during or after the reading, cross through those you wish to change, and check any new ones you find to be true. BE SURE YOU ARE ABLE TO REFER BACK TO THE READING TO PROVIDE EVIDENCE FOR OR AGAINST EACH STATEMENT.

___1. The adults like Atticus and Aunt Alexandra and Calpurnia handle the news of the jury's decision differently than Jem and Scout do.

___2. People from the town of Maycomb support the verdict in the Robinson case.

___3. People from the town of Maycomb oppose the verdict in the Robinson case.

___4. The very fact that the jury took so long to deliberate was a victory of sorts for Atticus and for the people of Maycomb.

___5. Atticus is a Christ figure in this novel – suffering to help others become better.

___6. People were so used to the injustices of southern society against blacks that they just took the verdict in stride – they thought nothing of it.

___7. Jem and Scout have learned some important lessons about people, but they don't know it.
