

1. Andy originally intended to hold on to Woody as a keepsake when he left for college. What special childhood objects do you hope to hold on to as you mature into your last teen years? Why?
2. Write a journal entry as if you were Andy. Describe your feelings about leaving for college and parting with your childhood toys. Explain why you packed some away and donated or threw away others.
3. List your top three animated films. Explain briefly why each made your list.
