

Treatment

Title:

Director:

Writer(s):

Editor:

Cast of Characters:

Character Name: Sharon McCoy

Short Description

Sharon McCoy is a bright and sometimes outspoken accountant. She has a sense of humor and a pleasant personality. Her world is shaken when she discovers a devastating secret about the husband she loves. Sharon is in her late twenties. She is beautiful at five-feet-six-inches tall. Her short, cropped hair is auburn and her eyes are green.

Character Name:

Short Description:

Character Name:

Short Description:

Character Name:

Short Description:

Character Name:

Short Description:

List of Locations for Filming:

Synopsis of Film

SAMPLE: Uprooted from her happy and secure existence, Sharon McCoy is thrust into a maze of fate, misconception and danger. What seems an ordinary introduction turns out to be a fateful event that foreshadows tremendous changes about to occur in this young woman's life. Doctor J.P. Knight seeks Sharon's expertise in accounting to help set the financial affairs of one of his patients in order. They develop a friendship. Several weeks later, she makes a heartbreaking discovery about her husband. Together, they work through the mesh of fate, misconceptions, and danger to get to the truth.

Opening Scene:

SAMPLE: A panorama of the Rocky Mountains comes into view. The scene shifts to the Denver skyline and zeroes into the window of an office building. A large office area with many desks comes into view and focuses on an attractive twenty-eight-year-old woman working at a computer. Then, it shifts to an older woman escorting a tall, middle-aged man toward the desk with the young woman.