

Review B: Capitalization

EXERCISE A For each of the following sentences, cross out any word that has an error in capitalization and correctly write the word above it.

Example 1. The address is 1308 <sup>North</sup>~~north~~ Fifty-seventh <sup>Street</sup>~~street~~.

1. We drove north, past the canadian border.
2. The Grand canyon, which is in Arizona, is a spectacular sight.
3. The local paper, the Sun times, reviewed the chamber music concert favorably.
4. The students of Yorkville high school auditioned for roles in South Pacific.
5. The ancient romans used aqueducts to bring water to Rome.
6. Sacagawea, a shoshone, accompanied the Lewis and Clark expedition.
7. Uncle Aaron and aunt Jayne plan to visit in december, and i am so excited!
8. The fire station is located on Fifth avenue.
9. The last planet discovered in our solar system was pluto.
10. as participants in a special project, a group of us visited the local Traffic Court.

EXERCISE B For each of the following groups of words, cross out any word that has an error in capitalization and correctly write the word above it.

Example 1. the <sup>Fourth</sup>~~fourth~~ of July, a <sup>national</sup>~~National~~ holiday

11. reading the Bill Of Rights
12. Christina's world by Andrew Wyeth
13. dear sirs:
14. the famous american sprinter Wilma Rudolph
15. Maika Rubin, the class President
16. published by the U.S. printing Office
17. celebrated Labor day, a national holiday
18. studied french, chemistry, and gymnastics
19. in the reception area at Riverside hospital
20. a meeting with representative Shirley Chisholm