

1. Go to Google image search and search for your favorite movie poster.
2. Complete the separate Movie Poster Analysis Worksheet.
3. Go to maxfield.synthasite.com click the Media Literacy tab click on National Geographic's Photo of the Day.
4. Copy the picture.
5. Open Adobe Photoshop CS4 and paste the photo in a new document.
6. Experiment with Photoshop #1
 - a. Experiment with various adjustments in the right hand column.
 - b. Apply at least 1 filter from the filter gallery.
 - c. Add a 6 word caption/saying with the text feature.
 - d. Add your first name, last initial to the picture.
 - e. Make any other desired changes you would like.
 - i. Bonus +1 for adding _____
 - ii. Bonus +1 for adding yourself to the picture
 - f. Save your new photo as a JPEG. Filename = your first name, last initial1. Example: williamm1.jpeg
 - g. Email a copy to me – maxfieldw@mehllville.k12.mo.us
7. Experiment with Photoshop #2
 - a. Go to Google images and search for candy hearts.
 - b. Find a picture you like with 1 – 5 hearts.
 - c. Copy the picture and paste into Photoshop.
 - d. Erase, modify, and add your own text from the bellringer activity.
 - e. Add your first name, last initial to the picture.
 - f. Resize your image to 1220 x 1024. If it makes your image look too unnatural, change the canvas size instead and paste your image into that.
 - g. Save your new photo as a JPEG. Filename = your first name, last initial2. Example: williamm2.jpeg
 - h. Email a copy to me – maxfieldw@mehllville.k12.mo.us
8. Work on your own 6 word memoir picture slide and save any work you are happy with. We will have 1 more lab day. Finished 6 word memoir slides are due by the end of lab day 2.