

That Day by the Numbers

Published: September 8, 2011

93 Nationalities of victims.

8 Months before Sept. 11 that Mohamed Atta, the lead hijacker, was readmitted to the country after overstaying his visa.

25 Days before Sept. 11 that Zacarias Moussaoui, suspected as the 20th hijacker, was arrested on immigration charges.

29.9 million Ounces of silver recovered from a Bank of Nova Scotia vault below the towers.

6,579 Airline passengers and crew members stranded in Gander, Newfoundland, after flights were grounded.

26 Hours after the north tower's collapse that the last survivor was pulled from the rubble.

300 Approximate number of search and rescue dogs deployed at the World Trade Center, Fresh Kills landfill and the Pentagon.

7 Days passed before Christine Todd Whitman, the E.P.A. administrator, said the air in New York was "safe to breathe."

99 Days passed before Gov. George E. Pataki declared the fires had been extinguished.

261 Days passed before last piece of steel, a 58-ton segment of column, was carted away.

2,977 Total victims of the attacks of Sept. 11, 2001.

3 Victims added to the official toll who died because of dust exposure.

343 Fire Department of New York personnel killed at the World Trade Center.

60 Police officers killed at the World Trade Center.

125.5 Miles of fire hose that had to be replaced.

17,400 Approximate number of workers at the World Trade Center when the planes hit.

18 People who escaped from inside or above the south tower impact zone.

0 People who escaped from inside or above the north tower impact zone.

2.3 Magnitude, on the Richter scale, of the seismic impact of the north tower's collapse.

62 Times emergency dispatchers said "Stay where you are" to callers in the towers.

52 Times they said "We're on the way."

86.2 Percentage increase in blood donations nationwide, comparing the 20 days before Sept. 11 with the 20 days after.

Loss by the Numbers

Published: September 8, 2011

21,817 World Trade Center human remains recovered.

9,006 Remains never matched to a victim.

1,121 Victims never identified through remains.

$2.08 million Average government settlement for families of those killed.

13,065 Minimum number of people found to have 9/11-related asthma and other lower respiratory ailments.

10,320 Minimum found to have 9/11-related PTSD and other mental illness.

3,000 Estimated number of children who lost a parent on 9/11.

21 9/11-related life insurance claims investigated by the frauds bureau of the New York State Insurance Department.

17 Children of firefighters killed who later joined the Fire Department.

2 Children of police officers killed who later joined the Police Department.

40,000 Minimum number of items left behind as tributes at Shanksville, Pa.

408 New York City streets co-named for 9/11 victims.

War by the Numbers

Published: September 8, 2011

6,204 American military personnel killed in Iraq and Afghanistan operations.

141 Military women killed.

2,300 American contractors killed.

144,000 Service members in either country as of Aug. 25, 2011.

1,192 Foreign coalition forces killed.

18,678 Iraqi and Afghan security forces killed.

102,339 Minimum number of Iraqi civilians killed, including by other Iraqis, according to Iraq Body Count.

172 million Meals Ready to Eat (M.R.E.'s) sent to personnel in Iraq and Afghanistan.

$1,645 Monthly pay for an Army private, with $225 additional for combat.

779 Detainees at Guantánamo Bay, Cuba, since 2002.

14 Percentage of former Guantánamo detainees who returned to terrorist activity.

1 Former Guantánamo detainees who have been tried in the United States.

Muslims Now, by the Numbers

Published: September 8, 2011

1.6 billion World Muslim population.

2.6 million Muslims in the United States.

6.2 million Projected Muslim population of the United States, 2030.

1 Broadcast seasons of "Arabs Got Talent."

2 Muslims in the United States House of Representatives.

5 Cable markets in the United States where Al Jazeera English is available.

36 Newborns named Osama in the United States in 2001.

55 Newborns named Osama from 2002 to 2009.

93 Percentage of Muslim Americans who believe their fellow Muslims are loyal to the United States.

48 Percentage who believe they have experienced racial or religious discrimination in the past year.

25 Percentage of Americans who say they harbor negative feelings toward Muslims because of 9/11.

2 Countries that have barred women from wearing facial veils in public (Belgium and France).