

ANNOUNCER

Here's the difference between the two ways of dealing with the nation's economy.

With Reaganomics, you cut taxes. With Mondale-nomics, you raise taxes.

Reaganomics: You cut deficits through growth and less government. Mondale-nomics: You raise taxes.

With Reaganomics, you create incentives that move us all forward. With Mondale-nomics, you raise taxes.

They both work. The difference is Reaganomics works for you. Mondale-nomics works against you.